

The Association of English Teachers in Korea

AETK Spring Conference '88

an annual event for professional language teachers in Korea including a variety of presentations and discussions on topics of interest to all language teachers

§ CONFERENCE PROGRAM §

9:30 - 10:00 AM	Registration and Coffee
10:00 - 10:15 AM	Opening Session
10:15 - 11:00 AM	Alister Barnes and Corinna Davie (Seoul National University): Jigsaw Reading / Listening Activities
11:00 - 11:30 AM	Group Discussion: Update on Copyright Laws and Current Status
11:30 - 12:00	Margaret Elliott (Han Nam University): A New Look at Strip Stories
12:00 - 1:00 PM	Lunch
1:00 - 4:00 PM	Norman Harris (Simon & Schuster): Variations in Conversation Dialogues Using Side By Side and other materials
4:15 - 5:00 PM	AETK Annual Business Meeting and Election of Officers

The Conference will be held on Saturday, May 28, 1988
at the

Yonsei University Foreign Language Institute in Seoul.

Norman Harris is a publisher's representative and ELT Consultant based in Japan and has taught in several countries including the USA, Afghanistan, England, China and Japan..... Alister Barnes and Corinna Davie are both ELT specialists who are teaching in Korea under the auspices of the British Council.....Margaret Elliott, now at Han Nam University in Taejon, also taught for a number of years at Sogang University in Seoul.

All teachers of English and other foreign languages in Korea are cordially invited to participate.

Registration fee: None for current AETK members, W10,000 Membership/Renewal fee for nonmembers and those whose membership has expired.